

Elwood Club Tours Arsenal

Members of the Lions club of Gardner visited the Joliet Arsenal Elwood unit Thursday night in lieu of their regular meeting.

Everett Stutsman, civilian personnel officer, John Chladek and M. C. Rader, management officials of the production branch, were hosts.

Following dinner, Col. Ronald B. Currens, Arsenal commander, explained the position of Joliet Arsenal in the total ammunition industry and the nature of items produced at the Arsenal. The group then toured the unit, where operations were explained.
